The Board will accomplish this by making reasoned and rational violation decisions that are based upon good and sufficient information.

3. If the Board is not scheduled to appear at the facility incarcerating the parolee within 30 days after the parolee's arrest, and the Department of Corrections is recommending that the parolee remain incarcerated until a Final Violation Hearing takes place, a Final Violation Hearing shall be scheduled within 20 days after the parolee's arrest at the incarcerating facility in lieu of scheduling a Preliminary Parole Violation Hearing.

The final violation hearing shall be canceled.
 2. If the Hearing Officer determines that probable cause does exist to believe that the parolee has committed any violations of the terms and conditions of his or her parole the matter shall proceed to a final violation hearing.

- C. If the Hearing Officer finds probable cause that the parolee has violated the terms and conditions of parole, the hearing officer may consider testimony and evidence relevant to the decision to release or incarcerate the parolee pending the final revocation hearing.
1. The Hearing Officer may continue incarceration, no more than 30 days from the time of arrest, pending the final violation hearing, or may release the parolee and impose additional conditions necessary to ensure the parolee's appearance at the final violation hearing. VI. Final Parole Violation Hearing:

- A. The Final Parole Violation Hearing shall be conducted by a quorum of the Board, which consists of at least three members and shall be conducted as follows:

3. The parolee is entitled to be represented by legal counsel at the hearing, including having counsel appointed to represent him or her if he or she can not afford counsel. The parolee may waive this right in writing.
4. The Department of Corrections may be represented by counsel.
5. The parolee is entitled to hear all information presented, and cross examine witnesses unless, in the opinion of the Parole Board, to do so would be dangerous to the witness. The parolee may present information on his or her behalf, and may testify on his or her behalf. If warranted, the cross examination by the offender's attorney can occur without the presence of the offender.
6. All persons offering testimony in a final parole violation hearing shall be sworn.
7. An audio recording shall be made of any portion of a final parole violation hearing in which the Board receives evidence or announces its decision.
8. The Board is not bound by the strict rules of evidence in the conduct of a final parole violation hearing. The Board may consider hearsay evidence, affidavits, letters, and other written documents. However, the parolee must be given the opportunity to confront and cross examine any witnesses who provide testimony or other evidence against him or her, except if good cause is shown to disallow confrontation. In determining whether good cause exists to disallow confrontation, the Board shall take into consideration the indicia of reliability of the evidence and the practical inconvenience of requiring live testimony to support the evidence.
9. The Board may compel the attendance of witnesses and the production of documents as set forth in procedure III:A of Chapter 7.

- C. The parolee may waive the Final Parole Violation Hearing in writing. If the parolee waives, the matters proceed as if the Board had determined that the parolee had violated the terms and conditions of his or her parole.
- D. Following the submission of all the evidence in the Final Parole Violation Hearing, the Board may go into deliberative session for deliberation. The deliberation following the final hearing shall be conducted in two phases.
1. During the first phase the Board shall determine, based on a preponderance of the evidence submitted in the Final Parole Violation Hearing, whether the parolee has violated any of the terms and conditions of his or her parole as charged in the notice of hearing.
 2. This determination shall be made by majority vote of the members of the Board present and voting and shall be made as to each of the charges in open session.
 3. If the Board determines that a preponderance of the evidence does not indicate that the parolee has violated any of the terms and conditions of his or her parole, the Board shall issue a written order to this effect and the parolee shall be released from custody and returned to supervision.
- E. If the Board determines in the first phase of deliberation that the parolee did violate one or more conditions of parole, the Parole Board shall choose from the following decisional options by majority vote in open session:
1. Reinstate the parolee on parole with a warning, a reprimand, a requirement for additional or modified parole conditions, or any combination thereof.
 2. Revoke parole.
 3. Enter such other order as the Board deems necessary or desirable and does not conflict with the Board's authority.

 - 2. The addition, deletion or modification substantially alters the limits on the offender's liberty without good cause, or
 - 3. The addition, deletion or modification is clearly unreasonable.
- B. If the Board Chair or his or her designee finds that none of these conditions exist he or she shall deny the request to review and so notify the person making the request.
- C. If the Board Chair or his or her designee concludes that one or more of these conditions exists, he or she shall schedule a review by the Board. This review shall be conducted as follows:
 - 1. The Board Chair or his or her designee shall determine if the Board will need more information to consider the case appropriately.
 - 2. If enough information has been received initially, Board staff may schedule a hearing at the facility nearest offender's residence consistent with procedures in Chapter 6.

3. If the Board does not initially receive enough information to consider a case appropriately, the Board Chair or his or her designee shall contact the offender or his or her representative and may schedule a hearing based on a reasonable time necessary to receive required information.

D. The change in conditions shall go into effect pending the Parole Board's review.

E. The decision of the Board is final and there shall be no subsequent reviews of the same additions, deletions or modifications.

II. Review at Minimum expiration of sentence:

A. Upon receipt of Notice from the Department of Corrections that a person under SCS will reach their minimum expiration, Board staff shall schedule that person for a parole interview as set forth in procedure I of Chapter 6.

B. The procedures set forth in Chapter 7 shall be followed in preparation for the interview.

C. An interview shall be conducted as set forth in procedures in Chapter 9, except that all witnesses who present information during interviews shall be sworn.

D. The Board shall render a decision in the case following the procedures set forth in procedure I in chapter 10 except that the decisional options of the Board shall be as follows:

1. Continue the offender under SCS supervision.
2. Terminate the offender from supervision completely.
3. Release the offender under parole supervision.

E. If the Board continues the person under SCS supervision he or she shall be entitled to further review as set forth in Chapter 4.

Chapter 17 - Violations of Supervised Community Sentence (SCS)

Authority

28 V.S.A. §353, 28 V.S.A. §363, 28 V.S.A. §364, 28 V.S.A. §365, V.S.A. §371, 28 V.S.A. §372, 13 V.S.A §7554

Policy

It is the policy of the Vermont Parole Board to provide timely, fair and impartial hearings that comport with due process to those SCS offenders who are alleged to have violated the terms and conditions of their SCS and to protect the public and the integrity of the SCS system by making reasoned and rational violation decisions that are based upon good and sufficient information.

Procedure

I. Arrest Warrant or Notice:

- A. The Parole Board Director may issue a warrant for the arrest of an SCS offender, if the Board Director receives information from the Department of Corrections that establishes probable cause to believe an SCS offender has violated condition(s) of their SCS.
 - 1. The warrant shall authorize any law enforcement officer and any correctional officer to return the offender to the custody of a correctional facility, or to any other suitable detention facility designated by the Board.
 - 2. If the warrant can not be served, the offender shall, for purposes of extradition only, be considered as having violated the terms of parole.
 - 3. There shall be no right to bail or release. However, pending a hearing, the Parole Board may authorize the offender's release from detention. The Chair of the Parole Board or his or her designee shall act as the judicial officer.
- B. In lieu of a warrant as deemed appropriate by the Parole Board Director, the Board Director may issue a notice to be served personally upon the offender directing the offender to appear before the board at a location, date, and time set forth in the notice.

II. Release from Custody Pending Hearings:

- A. Pending a hearing upon any charge of violation, the Parole Board Chair or designee may authorize the SCS offender's release from detention, or authorize continued detention, subsequent to a Bail Hearing.
 - 1. The Parole Board Office will receive requests for Bail Hearings through an SCS offender's attorney or through the supervising officer and a Bail Hearing shall be scheduled within (10) days of the request.
 - 2. The Parole Board Chair or his or her designee will act as the hearing officer with a minimum of the SCS offender, counsel for the SCS offender, and the supervising officer present at the Bail Hearing.

3. The hearing officer shall determine if the parolee is to be released pending formal violation proceedings or remain at the incarcerating institution, and determine any temporary conditions that may apply to the SCS offender's release.

III. SCS Violation Hearing:

- A. The SCS Violation Hearing shall be scheduled consistent with procedures in Chapter 6 and conducted by a quorum of the Board, which consists of at least 3 members and shall be conducted as follows:
 1. No SCS Violation Hearing shall be conducted until the offender has been given written notice of the hearing by the Department of Corrections. This notice shall contain the date, time, and location of the hearing, the charges being brought against the offender, and a statement advising the offender that he or she has a right to be represented by counsel, and that counsel shall be provided to represent him or her if he or she cannot afford to hire counsel.
 2. The hearing shall be opened by advising the offender of the charges against him or her and explaining the nature of the hearing.
 3. The supervising officer or other representative of the Department of Corrections shall present proof that supports the allegations that the terms and conditions of SCS may have been violated, subject to cross-examination by the offender.
 4. The offender may submit proof, if he or she so desires, to rebut the Department of Correction's charges, subject to cross examination by a representative of the Department of Corrections. The offender may also submit proof in mitigation of his or her conduct.
 5. The supervising officer or other representative of the Department of Corrections may submit evidence in rebuttal, subject to cross examination.
 6. Any Board member may question any witness.
- B. The SCS Violation Hearing shall comport with the following:
 1. The violation hearing shall be conducted within 60 days of the date of arrest.
 2. Those portions of the violation hearing where evidence is received or a decision is announced shall be conducted in open session, subject to the Department of Corrections needing to maintain the safety and security of the institution where the proceeding is conducted.

3. The offender is entitled to be represented by legal counsel at the hearing, including having counsel appointed to represent him or her if he or she can not afford counsel. The offender may waive this right in writing.
 4. The Department of Corrections may be represented by counsel.
 5. The offender is entitled to hear all information presented, and cross examine witnesses unless, in the opinion of the Parole Board, to do so would be dangerous to the witness. The offender may present information on his or her behalf, and may testify on his or her behalf. If warranted, the cross examination by the offender's attorney can occur without the presence of the offender.
 6. All persons offering testimony in a SCS Violation Hearing shall be sworn.
 7. An audio recording shall be made of any portion of a SCS Violation Hearing in which the Board receives evidence or announces its decision.
 8. The Board is not bound by the strict rules of evidence in the conduct of a SCS Violation Hearing. The Board may consider hearsay evidence, affidavits, letters, and other written documents. However, the offender must be given the opportunity to confront and cross examine any witnesses who provide testimony or other evidence against him or her, except if good cause is shown to disallow confrontation. In determining whether good cause exists to disallow confrontation, the Board shall take into consideration the indicia of reliability of the evidence and the practical inconvenience of requiring live testimony to support the evidence.
 9. The Board may compel the attendance of witnesses and the production of documents consistent with procedures in Chapter 9.
- C. The offender may waive the SCS Violation Hearing in writing. If the offender waives, the matters proceed as if the Board had determined that the offender had violated the terms and conditions of his or her SCS.
- D. Following the submission of all the evidence in the SCS Violation Hearing, the Board may go into deliberative session for deliberation. The deliberation following the final hearing shall be conducted in two phases.

1. During the first phase the Board shall determine, based on substantial evidence submitted in the SCS Violation Hearing, whether the offender has violated any of the terms and conditions of his or her SCS as charged in the notice of hearing.
2. This determination shall be made by majority vote of the members of the Board present and voting and shall be made as to each of the charges in open session.
3. During the second phase the Board shall render a decision in the case consistent with procedures in Chapter 10 except that the decisional options of the Board shall be as follows:
 - a) Continue the person under SCS supervision.
 - b) Continue the person under SCS supervision and recommend to the Commissioner added or modified conditions.
 - c) Conduct a formal or informal conference with the offender in order to re-emphasize the necessity of compliance with the conditions of the offender's supervised community sentence.
 - d) Revoke SCS and remand to the custody of the Vermont Department of Corrections for all or part of the remaining sentence.
4. If the Board determines that a preponderance of the evidence does not indicate that the offender has violated any of the terms and conditions of his or her SCS, the Board shall issue a written order to this effect and the offender shall be released from custody and returned to supervision.
5. The Board shall enter a written order that sets forth the evidence supporting the Board's decision.

Chapter 18 - Review of Parole Board Decisions and Reconsideration of Previous Decisions

Authority

28 V.S.A. §454; State v. Whitchurch, 155 Vt. (1990); State v. Peck, 149 Vt. 616 (1988); 28 V.S.A. §373

Policy

The Parole Board's decisions about parole and SCS are not subject to court review, with the exception that an offender may ask a court to determine whether the Board, in making a decision, violated any provision of Title 28, Chapter 7, violated the State or Federal constitutional rights of an offender, or violated the Board's own rules. However, the Board may grant reconsideration to a previous decision regarding parole or SCS when new information has been revealed to the Board, or other circumstances have significantly jeopardized the Board's previous decision.

Procedure

I. Request for Reconsideration of Prior Decision Regarding Parole:

A. Request for reconsideration shall be submitted to the Board Director in writing by an offender, or an offender's attorney. The request shall include a detailed explanation of what action the offender is seeking from the Board in reconsidering their previous decision and the specific grounds for the request.

B. Reconsideration must be approved by at least 3 members of the Board.

1. If a request for reconsideration is denied, Board staff will notify the offender of the denial promptly.
2. If a request for reconsideration has been approved by the Board, a hearing will be scheduled consistent with procedures in Chapter 6.
3. If the Board Chair, or his or her designee, in consultation with at least 3 Board members, decides not to schedule a hearing, at least 3 Board members will reconsider the previous decision while considering requested changes and determine if modifications will be made. At least 3 members of the Board must agree with the proposed changes, or any modification of a previous decision.
4. Actions taken by the Board with respect to previous decisions they reconsider shall be in writing and added to the original decision as an addendum.
5. Board staff will promptly notify the offender of the Board's decision in writing.

II. Grounds and Deadline for Offender's Reconsideration Request of Prior Decision Regarding Parole:

- A. The Board is sensitive to the problems of family members of those convicted of committing crimes, but must deal primarily with the offender and the offense. Family circumstances, business affairs, hardship, need, and other problems shared commonly by prisoners, are not usually considered adequate reasons for reconsideration. The only adequate reason for reconsideration shall be that new evidence has been provided which was not available at the time of the proceeding and which would have likely resulted in a different decision by the Board.
- B. Requests for reconsideration must be received by the Parole Board within 30 days of the proceeding.

III. Requests for reconsideration of Prior Decision Regarding SCS:

- A. SCS decisions may be reviewed for reconsideration upon written request at the Board's regular monthly business meeting.
- B. A hearing reconsidering an SCS decision shall be scheduled if supported by a majority of the board at its regular monthly business meeting.
 - 1. Evidence of "good cause" shall be included in the written request for reconsideration.
 - 2. Approved reconsideration hearings will be scheduled at the convenience of the Parole Board.
